Principal, Nine Teachers To Leave High School

At the beginning of each year WHS welcomes newcomers to the faculty, but as the year passes, it is inevitable that some of our faculty should leave. This year we bid farewell to nine teachers and an administrator who have paved the way for better education.

Highly regarded for his maintenance of orderliness and discipline, Mr. Hinterberg, who has served WHS well as principal for the past 34 years, is retiring. Mr. Hinterberg plans to spend much of his time working on his farmland. Last April he was elected to the City Council; thus his schedule next year should be quite full.

Mrs. Reinhard, who teaches seventh, eighth, and senior art is also retiring. She is the advisor of the Crafts Club.

A commercial teacher, Mr. Wills, is retiring this year. A member of the faculty for the past 38 years, Mr. Wills is going into accounting next year. He advises the Service Club.

Two members of the English department, Miss Shunk and Mr. Stark, are leaving Watertown this year. Miss Shunk, who teaches English II and world history, has been advisor for the Hi Scribbler. Mr. Stark, who plans to teach in Wauwatosa next term, teaches English III and American history and has served as advisor for dramatics and the National Thespians.

Mr. Ewanowski is returning to the University of Wisconsin for his doctor's degree. The speech correction teacher, he has acted as technical advisor of the dramatic club.

Another faculty member, Miss Sundermeyer, who teaches string music and ninth grade English, is returning to college to further her education.

Mr. Whalen, who teaches English 8, 9, and 10 is also leaving. His plans for next year are indefinite.

Scribbler Staff Chosen; S. Mears Named Editor

Susan Mears, a junior and currently a Scribbler co-editor, has been named editor-in-chief for the ensuing school year. An experienced reporter and a capable page editor, Susan is well qualified for this position. Her extracurricular activities, which include band, forensics, dramatics, Girls' Club, and GAA, reveal a wide variety of interests. A recent honor bestowed upon the new editor was her election to the office of president of the Girls' Club.

Gretchen Burzynski, who for the past year shared with Susan the editorship, has been named assistant editor of the 1958-59 Orbit. She will continue to serve the Scribbler, however, in the capacity of news editor.

Two new members, both sophomores, will join next year's editorial staff. Assisting Gretchen in the news department will be Karla Johnsen, who has revealed through her work this year her interest in writing and her ability in that area. Selected to replace Karen Ruth Schmidt as city editor is Virginia Johannsen. In addition to performing the duties of the city editor, Jinky will help Pat Zeimis in the reading of copy. Karen Ruth Schmidt will continue on the staff as a page editor working with Edith Niemann on the literary page.

Succeeding Louis Kressin, 1958-59 sports editor, will be Pat Loughlin, also a sophomore. Pat has gained considerable experience the past year as a sports reporter. Sherry Rippe will continue on the staff as photographer next year.

Seniors To Graduate In New Gym

Commencement speakers Louis Kressin and Anita Eggert

Approximately 150 capped and gowned senior candidates for graduation will soon be ushered by the familiar strains of "Pomp and Circumstance" into the new gymnasium for the impressive exercises that will culminate their many years of hard work and good fun in WHS.

The traditional commencement exercises will begin at 8:00 P. M. on Wednesday, June 4, preceded by a concert of favorite numbers played by the orchestra under the direction of Mr. Stamstad. Among these numbers will be "The Pearl Fishers", "Over The Rainbow", "The Dream of Olwen", "The Impresario", "La Buona Figliola", and "The Rumanian Overture". Also as part of the commencement program, Dave Kiepert will play his well-known solo "Concertina for Clarinet", and the entire mixed chorus will sing "Halls of Ivy".

As class president, Lowell Pritchard will deliver the welcoming address, and Judy Port, the senior class treasurer, will present the class gift. Louis Kressin and Anita Eggert, chosen for their outstanding scholastic abilities in the past years, will deliver commencement addresses to their fellow students.

The main commencement speaker will be Mr. Russell Lewis of Madison. As he is the assistant superintendent of schools of all of Wisconsin, he is well qualified to give a very worthwhile message to the seniors.

After the presentation of the diplomas by Mr. Block, president of the school board, the seniors will file out of the gym to the strains of "March Noble" with the realization that this is not the end of the journey, but truly just a beginning.

Top Students Honored On Award Day

Many local organizations and places of business offer awards annually to outstanding students. Recipients of the Elk's Constitution Contest award is Anita Eggert. Runners-up are Carol Peterson, Karen Schuenke, Shary Pomeroy, and Bonnie Halvorson.

The American Legion offers several awards; winner of the Nurses Training Scholarship Award is Karen Schuenke. In addition, they give medal awards the recipients being: Karen Schuenke and William Sprenger.

Those receiving the Veterans of Foreign Wars Award are Carol Peterson and Roger Block.

Anita Eggert was the recipient of the American Association of University Women Award.

The award of the Daughters of the American Revolution was given to Liz Derleth.

The Watertown Chapter of the American Red Cross gave their award to Sharon Pomeroy.

LuAnn Uttech, Bill Kehl, Joan Eggert, Judy Melcher, Barbara Kiepert, and Dick Niemi were the music students awarded a scholarship to the music clinic held in Madison during the summer months. The John Philip Sousa award, a relatively new award, was given to David Kiepert.

Joan Neidfelt was the University of Wisconsin Alumni Association's choice for their scholarship award. Awards were also given to Sharon Pomeroy and Bill Sprenger.

The city PTA scholarship was awarded to Bonnie Halvorson.

Recipient of the Saturday Club Scholarship Award was Diana Schueneman.

The annual Betty Crocker, Home-maker of Tomorrow Award was given to Joanne Griebenow.

Busse's Pharmaceutical Award was given to Mike Podolske and Bill Sprenger.

Various other awards were presented to students who did outstanding work.

Russell Block Gets Davies' Scholarship

Russell Block was presented with the annual Joe Davies' scholarship award which provides $600 a year for four years of study at the University of Wisconsin.

Russell is a top student, ranking 16th in his class. He has decided to study nuclear engineering. In addition to his high scholastic ability, he has exhibited ability in many extracurricular activities such as tumbling, baseball, and track. In 1954 he won the city tennis championship, and last year he was selected to represent WHS at Badger Boys' State.

The award was made by John Clifford, a member of the local scholarship committee and a member of the board of trustees of the Davies' foundation.

Pat Zeimis Heads Orbit; '59 Edition Underway

Although 1958 Orbits have not yet made their appearance in WHS halls, work on the 1959 edition has already commenced under the direction of the newly selected staff of juniors.

Pat Zeimis will next year head the group as editor-in-chief. Joanne Eggert and Gretchen Burzynski will act as co-editors. The staff, consisting of the various section heads, has been chosen. Jane Rogers and Marilyn Zabel will work on the senior class section. Audrey Schlueter, Edith Niemann, and Brigitte Felske will share the responsibilities of the underclass section. The activities division will be headed by Carol Jack, Judy Melcher, and Anne Koester. Susan Kressin, Kathy Ferry, and Susan Kehl will handle the make-up of the sports section. Sherry Rippe will assume the position of Orbit photographer. Art work throughout the book will be done by Eileen Raether and Susan Turke.

Others wishing to work on the Orbit will be given an opportunity to do so next fall.

In respect and admiration we dedicate this issue of the Hi Scribbler to Miss Shunk, who for five years has been its excellent advisor. We know it will be hard for anyone to take her place. We wish her continued success where ever she may go.

CLASS WILL

Ken Bilgrien wills his balloons and wig to Joe Clifford for next year's Homecoming skit.

Merlin Baumann wills all his commercials to Frank Schmilt for future use in Mr. Jensen's problems class.

Arden Hintzmann wills his farm to Mr. Jensen to show him that farmers aren't making money.

The members of Miss Gruner's 5th period English class will her an air conditioner, so her 5th period class won't be so hot next year.

The members of the senior class will Mrs. Huck an automatic boot... Need more be said?

The members of the will committee will all their wills to the juniors.

The 5th period physics class will Mr. Herreid a gym and not for what you think it will be used for.

The seniors who went on the Eastern Tour will Miss Shunk a whistle in order to stop the train faster.

Joyce Schnitger wills her name "Simple" to Bill Kehl.

Sharen Nelson wills a check for $17.50 for illegal parking to Dickie Theder.

Bernard Pierce wills frosting for all frosting heads next year to Mr. Jensen.

Beatrice Oestreich wills her American problems book and first semester tests to Tom Gamroth so he'll pass problems.

Donald Klecker wills his lead foot to Dick Wicker.

Kathy Grimm wills the job of serving the teachers in the cafeteria to Mabel Lueck.

Anita Eggert wills her job of bossing around all the other French horn players to her sister, Joanne.

Gerrie Kube wills a fish hook and sinker to Millie Kube. Hope you can use this for your big catch.

Kathleen Grulke and Donna Shepherd will a mustache to Mr. Great-house to wear as an art teacher for his future years in teaching. Now he can have a mustache without his wife knowing it.

Roger Rothschild wills his nickname "tweety" to any fool crazy enough to take it.

Richard Engelhart wills his good study hall habits to Joe Clifford who really could improve his.

Jerry Plehn wills his name "Jabo"

Class Prophecy

Marge Negus is slaving away raising dark-skinned turkeys.

The official chauffeur of Cadillacs Incorporated is Karen Kusel.

Carla Dunlap is busy growing spinach for all her "little swabees," so they will all grow up to be just like daddy or should we say "Popeye the Second."

Vernon Wegner is building a Brand New Lebanon for his growing family.

Lynnette Fredrick will be raising little Sprengers, dogs of course! What did you think?

After twenty years of marriage Linda Dierker is still afraid to go into the barn.

Barbara Winkenwerder is giving T. V. commercials on how to use Adorn on pony tails.

Kay Meyers is operating a garage on Center Street specializing in repainting of light blue Fords.

Poor David Braunschweig! After all these years, everybody still insists on calling him Divey Brunswick.

Karen Nelson is a woman doctor because she certainly knows how to "operate".

Susie Hoppe even has colored false teeth. It sure helps to have a dentist for a father-in-law.

Eldon Uttech can be seen weekly on television on the barber shop quartet.

Bernie Pierce—"shnaky"—has traveled around the world collecting money for "Mr. Jensen's Globe" ha ha.

Don Bohn's children have been taken in by the welfare department because they are too "boney".

John Schwefel is still Mr. Chandler's high hand aid, in supplying him with meat.

Joann Ohrmundt swam all the way to Hawaii to see a certain "Birtsch" tree.

Tom Mann, our industrial tycoon, can still be seen in his model "T".

Nancy Peterson is specializing in the art of gardening—raising little WEEDS, of course.

Liz Derleth is accounting her kids.

Gloria Karberg is very busy at college. It seems that she has a permanent job as part time babysitter for Lynn and Bill.

Since Marie Dollase has attended Valparaiso, it has become an all-girl college.

Lois and Ken are starting a new A. and P. Store—animal crackers and pabulum, that is.

Bonnie Halvorsen is now operating a space rocket drag strip to the moon since Chevies have become outdated.

Allan Christenson is busy studying sons. Both kinds.

So "Northwestern" is still Diana Schuenemann's motto. Janice Mueller's motto is "to have a heart and grow a wig". Hartwig, that is.

Bill Frish is president of a sardine packing company. He is the best Frisherman they'll ever have.

to anyone who wants it.

Diana Schuenemann wills her short height to Kent Karberg so he doesn't have to remodel his kitchen.

John Kellerman wills all the "Ham" radio books he reads in math to Miss Griffith.

Carol Huebel wills tape for the students' mouths to Mrs. Huck.

Ken Jahnke wills a watch dog to Judy Melcher to protect her next year when he won't be around.

Harold Neitzel wills his parking place on Wisconsin Street to Tom Gamroth because he's always there first anyhow.

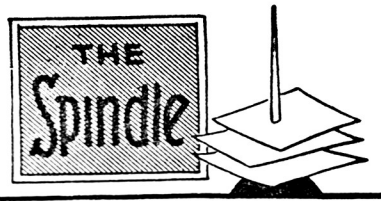

Homeroom 104 wills a token from their unforgettable homeroom to Miss MacInnis.

Linda Dierker wills all her excess poundage to Shari Kuerschner.

Germaine Blase wills her sister, Bernie, a leash to keep Joe in place next year.

Some girls break a date by going out with him.

Anna Herbert

Now that the school year is drawing to a close, everyone is anxiously looking forward to vacation and the wonderful times they will have. But we can also look back on those memories of the school year gone by: the Freshmen's first day at high school; the Juniors have their prom to look back on; and the Seniors, that great day of graduation.

With the exception of the Seniors, who can only reminisce about many of the exciting times they had in Watertown High, we will all have the great privilege of returning to school in the fall and living many of these happy moments over again.

Mystery Author

(The well-known mystery author of the last issue was Robert Louis Stevenson).

Born in "Merry old England" this famous author led a very harrowing life. He had been born Feb. 17, 1812, the second in a family of eight children. His father was a clerk who never seemed to have enough money to support his family. Thus, they drifted from one shabby home to another.

This author, who was twelve at the time, got a job in a blacking warehouse. He worked twelve hours a day, six days a week, putting labels on bottles of blackening.

Then very unexpectedly his father received a legacy. He happily quit his job and was sent to a private school. But, once more his father lost his money foolishly and, after two years the son had to quit school. He taught himself shorthand in order to get a job. He got a job as a court reporter and later advanced to the reporters' gallery of the House of Commons. But, as he once said, "reporting is echoing what other people have said," and he wanted to see his own words in print. He sent a sketch to a publisher and was so happy when it was accepted, he wept. This was the beginning of a new and prosperous career for him.

Soon his fame spread to America. In England he continued to write. He founded a newspaper, a weekly journal and a magazine. Several of his famous books appeared in serial form in his magazine. It was during this time that he published A Tale of Two Cities and David Copperfield. Most of you by this time should be aware of this famous author. His name—Charles Dickens.

Carol Peterson and Merlin Baumann will attend college but as yet have not chosen a college.

Gad About Hi

What did the ticket say, Cuch? Is that why Susie has been driving you around lately?

Seems as though some junior boys will be lonesome next year. What are you planning to do on graduation night, Ralph and Joe?

In the still (?) of the library, what was that suspicious sound coming from Bill and June's table?

It seems that certain Junior girls have an extreme case of spring fever. Playing "leap frog" in Riverside Park?

Kathie, I'm so scared I've already bitten off three nails!

Say Marge, did you enjoy "Chuck's" as well as "Maxmillian House?"

Hey Rich, let's go canoeing some night again, only not get caught by a spotlight this time, ok?

SC Officers Chosen

Wednesday, May 22, at 3:45 the newly elected Student Council officers and representatives met for a meeting. This meeting was the last one for this school year. The Student Council is planning to have several meetings during the summer in order to organize the freshman orientation and the get-acquainted mixer early next fall. The new officers are Gretchen Burzynski, president; Susie Turke, vice-president; Edy Niemann, secretary; and Jim Cahoon, sgt. at arms. The new senior class representatives are Joanne Eggert, Phyllis Hertel, Susie Kressin, Carol Strache, Karen Krueger, and Marilyn Zabel. The junior representatives are Janet Buske, Jinky Johannsen, Shari Kuerschner, Carol Minar, Diane Reinhard, Jane Uttech, and Jeanne Schultz. The sophomores elected as their representatives Jim Cahoon, Barbara Kiepert, Diane Eisfeldt, and Elfi Wessolick. It is quite certain Watertown High School will benefit under these able students. The Council's work for next year includes: freshman orientation, mixer, Homecoming, open house, career day, and student council dance plus any other project in which the Student Council is needed.

May 14, after the last Student Council meetings, the former officers and representatives had supper at the home of their vice-president, Liz Derleth. At this party, the Student Council presented the gift of cuff links to their able advisor, Mr. Leys. His expert guidance was appreciated very much.

The previous Student Council representatives hope that your ideas and thoughts were represented by them and the new representatives will try to do an even better job.

Annual Banquet Held; Music Teachers Honored

On Saturday, May 24, the annual music banquet was held in the high school gym. About 400 music students in the junior and senior high schools attended the banquet, which was given by the Parents' Music Club.

After the meal, a member of the Mixed Chorus, Norman Melcher, served as emcee for the program. In addition to the faculty members who spoke, Dave Kiepert, the band captain, and Dick Vehlow, the orchestra president, spoke on behalf of the instrumental music department. Chuck Harberg, president of the Mixed Chorus, also gave a speech. After this, Miss Sundermeyer, Mr. Stamstad, and Mr. Straver presented the awards to those students who participated in the district and state solo and ensemble contests.

Following the program was the all-school dance, with music provided by the Neenah High School Dance Band under the direction of Mr. Robert Gruetzman.

Senior Girls Honored At AAUW Spring Tea

On May 21, the annual Girls' Spring Tea was held at the Watertown Country Club. This was the 28th year that the American Association of University Women sponsored the spring event.

As was customary, the president, Mrs. Kading, presented the AAUW scholarship award to an outstanding senior girl. This year it was presented to Anita Eggert.

The guest speaker for the tea was Miss Martha Peterson. Miss Peterson is the dean of women at the University of Wisconsin. She spoke on what young people must do to meet and prepare for their futures.

The girls were also entertained by a quartet from Northwestern College.

G. Burzynski To Attend National Council Meet

Gretchen Burzynski, the newly elected Student Council president has been selected to represent Watertown at the 22nd annual conference of Student Councils of the National Association of Student Councils. This conference will take place at Ferguson, Missouri, June 22 through 26. There are a limited number accepted in each state, and Watertown High School is fortunate to send one of the approximately 600 students which will represent all the states to this national convention. This is the first time the Student Council has had a representative to attend a National Convention. It is certain that our Student Council will benefit by Gretchen's attendance.

Seniors Present "Around The World"

"Around the World in 80 Seconds" was the theme of the annual class day, which was held on May 29. It featured various skits which took place in different countries as the class of '58 took its audience around the world. Some of these were "No Chemise Please," "Yokahama Mama," a Russian ballet (including an all male cast), a Hawaiian dance and many others. The whole program led up to the crowning, which took place in England; the royalty consisted of Queen Liz Derleth, and Mike Podolske, king. Their court consisted of Barb Nesta and Don Krueger, Susie Justman and Carl A. Krueger, Janet Minar and Tom Mann, and Karen Nelson and Tom Kuckkahn.

The whole event was hilariously emceed by Bernie Pierce and Judy Hoffstetter.

The entire program was organized and presented by the senior class. It was headed mainly by the class officers: Lowell Pritchard, Judy Port, Liz Derleth, and Mary Ann Nimm. Under them was the talent committee headed by Mary Mullen and Bernie Pierce, the prophecy committee headed by Joyce Schnitger and Bennett Wright, and the will committee headed by Arden Hintzman. Many others worked under these chairmen to make Class Day a success.

Cheerleaders For 1958-59 Are Announced

WHS is very proud of the fine work done by the "A" and "B" squad cheerleaders this past year. Next year eight new girls will take over where this year's squads left off and try to do an equally good job in keeping WHS spirit high.

Taking a big step, Carol Minar climbed all the way from alternate cheerer of the "B" squad to captain of next year's "A" squad. Along the line of subjects, Carol will carry geometry, U. S. history, English, and typing I. When it comes to eating, Carol finds pizza and ice cream most enjoyable. Her favorite expression is "holy cow", especially when it pertains to her pet peeve, little brothers.

"Jinky" Johannsen, another junior from the "B" squad, will take five subjects next year—English, U. S. History, geometry, chemistry, and art. To ease her mind after a rough day she likes to eat lobster, sit down to knit, or in summer, to participate in all water sports. This is a warning to all fans. Her pet peeve is kids who don't cheer at the games.

The only senior on the squad is Kathy Ferry. Kathy also served on the "A" squad this year. Her curriculum will consist of American Problems, English IV, Typing II, stenography I, and world history. Ranking high on her list of hobbies is sleeping. Water sports and horseback riding also rate well. Kathy's father seems to think her most common expression is, "May I use the car?" Besides non-supporting sports fans, her pet peeve is being dragged out of bed early on Saturday mornings.

A newcomer to cheering is Pat Jaye. Pat will also carry five subjects next year—geometry, chemistry, English, U. S. History, and Typing I. Besides dates with Ken, she enjoys horseback rides and rock 'n' roll. After this, her stomach anxiously awaits its fill of hamburgers with "loads of pickles", malts, or lobster. Her pet peeve is people who act like they're too good for one.

Coming up from the "B" squad is Mayris Saniter, who will serve as the substitute, for next year's "A" squad.

Captain of the "B" squad will be Susie Blaese. As a sophomore she will carry English, biology, Spanish I, and algebra as subjects. Besides school she has a primary interest in sports of all kinds. When meal time rolls around, she'd just as soon sit down to a hamburger and a hot fudge sundae. You can often hear her say, "Oh, I just thought that was so funny."

As a freshman, Lenny Kehl will serve her first year on the squad. Her schedule next year will consist of general science, geography and vocations, English, and algebra or Latin I. It seems Lenny isn't guilty of a favorite expression, because her pet peeve is people who repeat the same utterance over and over again. To work up an appetite, which thrives on hamburgers, French fries, and cokes, she spends her time ice skating in winter and swimming in the summer.

Peggy Rettig, another freshman on the squad, will also carry geography and vocations, general science, English, and algebra or Latin I as subjects. To complete her busy days, she enjoys the Junior Historians' Club, band, and skating. When it comes to favorite foods, Peggy is very fond of barbecues, fried chicken, hamburgers, and steak. Her pet peeve is trying to take care of "unruly" children.

The other sophomore cheerleader will be Kay Theder. Kay will take Spanish I, typing I, biology, English, and attempt the sax in band as her subjects for next year. She enjoys horseback riding and records. One had better watch what he says to Kay, because she has often been heard to say "I'll hit you, sweetie pie!" Her pet peeve is people who know they have a meeting and don't attend.

Peggy Marks will be on hand to pinch hit whenever one of the regulars can't make it. Peggy will also be a sophomore.

WHS Music Contestants Well Rated At State

Following are the results of the state music contest, which was held at Madison on Saturday, May 10.

Class A solos: Dave Ebert, trumpet, second; Joanne Eggert, French horn, fourth; Anita Eggert, French horn, third; Dave Kiepert, clarinet, first; Dave Kiepert, alto sax, first; Jerry Zautner, drums, second; Lynnette Fredrick, baton, first; Corinne Hamann, piano, fourth; Shary Pomeroy, mezzo-soprano, first; Judy Melcher, soprano, second.

Class B solos: Mary Kihlsinger, French horn, fourth; Sherry Rippe, tenor sax, third; Pat Jaye, flute, third; Kathy Norman, violin, third; Barbara Leischer, violin, second.

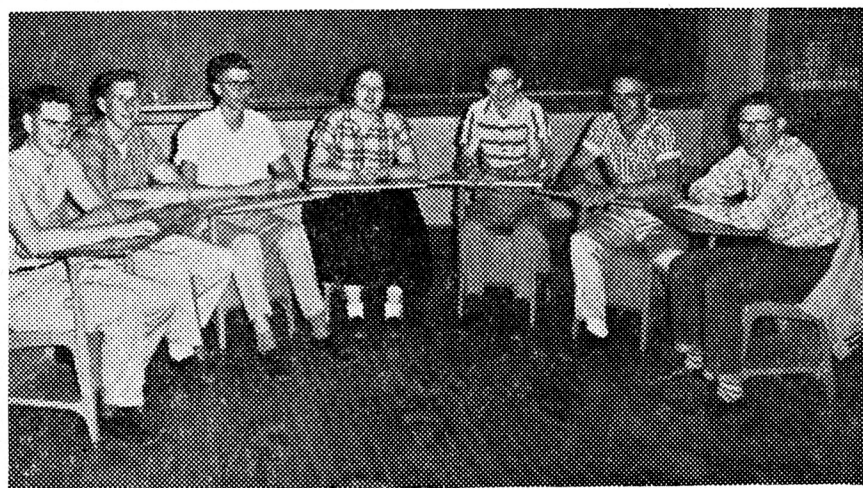

Class A ensembles: Dick Niemi and Bill Sprenger, trumpet duet, first; Dick Niemi, Bill Sprenger, and David Ebert, trumpet trio, first; Dick Niemi, Bill Sprenger, Dave McMurray, Anita Eggert, brass quartet, first; Jerry Zautner and Ken Jahnke, drum duet, third; Steve Kohls, Ken Jahnke, Jerry Frank, Jerry Zautner, and Connie Wood, drum ensemble, second; Shary Pomeroy, Susie Kressin, Ruth Kastan, and Cam Olson, vocal quartet, first; Lynnette and Janice Fredrick, twirling duet, second.

Steve Kohls and Charles Tegatz earned a first on their Class B drum duet.

Three Eighth Graders Win Art Contest Awards

At a recent contest among eighth grade art students in the city, Roger Buss won a first prize, Lenny Kehl second, and Carole Knuth a third prize. This is an annual contest sponsored by the Saturday Club. The idea is to find a deserving student to receive a scholarship from the Helen Mears art fund. Roger Buss also received an honorable mention cash award from the district.

Eight Juniors Will Attend Badger State

Recently seven Badger Boys' State delegates were selected from the junior class. These boys are: John Kressin, John Splinter, Daron Zimmerman, Dick Niemi, John Meyer, Leigh Larson, and David Pfaffenbach.

The American Legion Auxiliary Department of Wisconsin Extension Division are co-sponsoring Badger Girls' State, the WHS delegate being Pat Zeimis.

The boys will spend the week of June 14 to 21 at Ripon College as in previous years, while Pat will spend her week at the University of Wisconsin. Upon arrival at the campuses, they will be grouped into cities and counties which will form a 49th state. The delegates will institute the forms and carry out all main functions of state government. These students will learn of the fundamentals of the American form of government, and of the vital part that citizenship training should play.

Representatives to Badger State are chosen on the basis of outstanding leadership, scholarship, physical fitness, good character, and participation in school activities.

Kicking It Around

By Loui

This issue brings to a close a very active year in Watertown High School sports. Watertown initiated wrestling; school officials have accepted an offer to join the Little Ten sports conference; the first part of next year we will still be in the Braveland Conference. Several interesting things happened this year. The tennis squad finally won a match, which is good news. After trying with their utmost effort, the football squad lost the championship by one-half game. Little was expected of the basketball quintet, but they showed very well in the first half of the season by winning 12 straight. Several injuries hampered the squad from then on. The golf squad has done the best of any spring sport outside of the B-squad baseball team. One more season has rolled by without the track which was needed so badly and is now under construction.

Nobody appreciates nicknames in this school. Pat Zeimis doesn't like "B-O" and Peggy Marks hates "the pest." Can't say I really blame them either.

We Yankee fans can show our faces once more. The Bombers lead the junior circuit by a mile. Oh yes, what happened to the Braves losing the series to the Cubs? Bring on the Braves if they make it to the World Series.

Any boys interested in playing summer softball should contact Dave Barry, recreational director. A girls' softball team has been organized in Watertown.

Watertown was placed in the southern division of the Little Ten. There will remain only one championship title for the league however. The other members of the southern division are Hartland Arrowhead, Oconomowoc, Beaver Dam, and West Bend. Spring sports of 1959 might be played with these schools. Also, the possibility of organized volley-ball play is being considered.

New A-squad cheerleaders were chosen recently. They are Carol Minnar, captain; Kathy Ferry, Pat Jaye, Jinky Johannsen, and Mayris Saniter, substitute.

If you're still with me here at the bottom of the column, I would like to wish you a pleasant summer vacation. Look for this column next year. It can't get any worse than it is now.

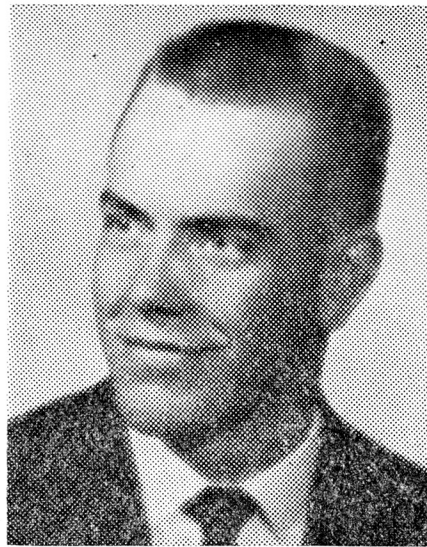

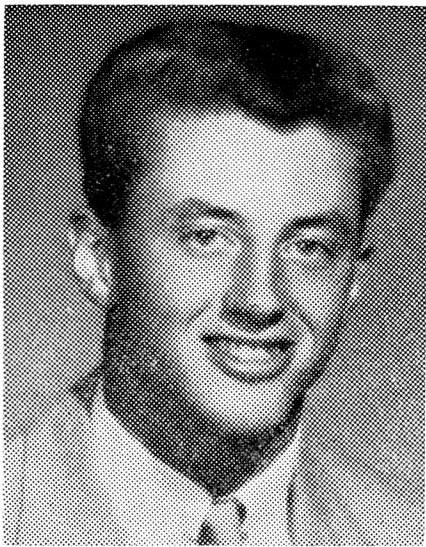

Golfers Finish Well

The golf team, which participated in the Janesville Invitational, found Jim Clifford medalist with scores of 44 and 42 for an 86. Leigh Larson shot a 93, Reed Larson a 94, and Tom Gamroth a 95.

In the Menomonee match Watertown posted a victory, 229-249. Tom Gamroth had a medalist 39 score; Jim Clifford shot a 44; and Leigh Larson had a 45.

Lake Mills defeated the Goslings by a 5-4 score. Leigh Larson and Jim Clifford again led the Watertown team.

The Gosling team continued its winning ways by defeating Nicolet and Brookfield in a triangular meet. Jim Clifford posted a low score of 40 to lead the Goslings, followed by Tom Gamroth with a 41 and Reed Larson with a 43. The team score, 217, was just enough to eke by Nicolet's 218. Brookfield placed last with a 226 team score.

Track Co-Captains, Mike Podolske and John Wright

WHS Tracksters Improve With Experience

Watertown Goslings failed in their attempt to retain the track championship of the conference in their annual track meet at Port Washington. They also failed to register any first places, although Mike Podolske and Dave Pirkel managed to take two seconds apiece. Mike won his points placing in the broad jump and the 220-yard dash, while Dave compiled his in the low and high hurdles. Pete Westermeyer placed third in the high jump, accompanied by Frank Schmitt's third in the shot put. Three fifths were won by the Goslings as Don Krueger took a fifth in the low hurdles, Ken Schwantes in the 440-yard dash, and the fifth racked up by the sprint medley relay composed of John Wright, Tom Podolske, Ronnie Stregge, and Pat Loughlin.

Both Watertown Gosling track outfits suffered defeats at the hands of the Cooney trackmen. The varsity was defeated at the hands of the Cooney trackmen. The varsity was defeated 77-41, while the "B's" were dumped by an almost identical score of 78-40. Several fine efforts on the part of some of the Goslings brightened the otherwise dismal meet. Mike Podolske defeated two formidable foes to win the 100-yard dash in a fast :10.5, and the 220-yard dash in a respectable :22.8. He also won the broad jump to sustain his winning ways. Dave Pirkel finished the meet with a victory in the low hurdles and a second in the highs won by Cooney. Frank Schmitt placed first in the shot put, while Bill Summers registered a third in the 880-yard run, as well as Don Krueger's third in the 440.

Tom Podolske kept the winning ways in the family as he won the same events as the elder Podolske. The Gosling "B" squad also won the 880-yard relay in respectable time, with Neil Butenhoff running a fine leg and the younger Podolske anchoring it. Places were also registered in the shot put, quarter mile, and mile by the younger Gosling teams.

This meet again showed the lack of depth of Coach Colletti's trackless tracksters. The lack of a track will continue to hinder the fine efforts of these boys.

Watertown finished seventh in an eleven team meet held at Port Washington. The relays compose most of the meet, with no individual field events run off. The Goslings placed fifth with their 440-yard relay composed of Ronnie Neuman, Don Krueger, John Wright, and Mike Podolske. The low-hurdle shuttle relay team placed third after the disqualification of the two top teams. The boys who ran on this relay were Dave Pirkel, Don Krueger, and Brian Eckhardt. Mike Podolske took a second in the broad jump.

The Watertown tracksters placed second in a triangular meet held on the 320-yard Menomonee Falls track. The Goslings had the meet won, but their victorious 880 relay was disqualified. For once there was additional scoring on the part of all competing Goslings.

Dave Pirkel won both the hurdles, while Mike Podolske won the 100-yard and 220-yard dashes and the broad jump. For the first time, a Gosling placed in the pole vault with Jerry Schmidt taking a third. Pete Westermeyer took first in the high jump and a fourth in the shot, while Frank Schmitt won the shot put. Ken Schwantes took a fifth in the discus, John Wright a third in the 220, Ronnie Neuman a fourth in the 100, and Don Krueger a second in the high jump, a fourth in the broad jump, and a third in the low hurdles. Brian Eckhardt took third in the high hurdles, with Dave Pirkel also receiving a fourth in the broad jump. The sprint medley team made up of Tom Podolske, Ronnie Stregge, Pat Loughlin, and Ronnie Neuman won a first.

The scoring was Menomonee Falls 85½, Watertown 80½, and Muskego 81.

The Watertown Goslings finished an undistinguished last place in the eight team meets. The only points registered by the team were fourths in the 440-yard and 880-yard relays. Both teams were composed of Don Krueger, Dave Pirkel, John Wright, and Mike Podolske.

Softball League Active

The junior high school has three teams in the seventh and eighth league: the seventh grade team, Bluebirds; the eighth grade team, Bluejays; and the seventh and eighth grade team, Jayhawks. The seventh grade team has a record of three wins and three losses, under the coaching of Ricky Parish. The Jayhawks have a record of two wins and three losses, under the coaching of Tom Jay. The eighth grade team has a record of four wins and one loss, under the coaching of Ed. Kohlhoff. The loss will be replayed. Their outstanding game was a no-hit shut out by Tom Wright. With John Mantey and Dave Kuckkahn the competition is very keen, but the eighth grade team has a good chance for first place.

Netters Win Match

The Watertown High School tennis team was blanked by the Northwestern Preps 7-0. The squad, comprised of mostly freshmen and sophomores, is without a victory thus far. Heinz Poellet was the only Gosling to win a set. Don Gorder and Dick Stallman showed noted improvement although they lost their match.

In the Horicon game the team continued its losing streak by dropping a 6-1 decision. John Ponath was the only Watertown netman to win his match. Dick Stallman and Heinz Poellet were successful in extending their foes but were unable to come up with the victory. In doubles play Dave Braunschweig and Ralph Eckhardt forced their opponents to a 12-10 before losing.

B's Finish Undefeated

One of the most outstanding B-squad baseball teams in years finished with a perfect 7 win record. This is the first time the B-squad has ever finished undefeated in Watertown High School history.

The final two victories came over Menomonee Falls and Oconomowoc. Against Hartford Dick Peterson pitched six innings, allowing only two runs as the junior Goslings whipped Hartford 11-2. Peterson limited Hartford to three hits while his mates collected 13 to batter two Hartford pitchers. Cahoon, Schumann, Braunschweig, and Zimmerman each collected at least two hits.

Watertown ripped Oconomowoc 10-1 behind Dick Schumann to finish the season. Mike Theder had a field day with a perfect 5 for 5 at bat while Jim Cahoon had 2 for 5. Seven other hits were scattered, one apiece, among the rest of the squad for a total of 14 hits.

In seven games the Goslings collected 75 hits while limiting the opposition to 24. Dick Schumann posted 4 victories while Dick Peterson recorded the other three.

Mike Theder and Jim Cahoon, both freshmen, appear to have a good chance to make the varsity next year. Dick Schumann has been very effective and should also help the A-squad. Coach Grabow's junior Goslings deserve a pat on the back for their fine play. They amassed, by far, the best spring sport record.

WHS Nine Disappointing

Watertown closed its regular season play with a 7-4 victory over Johnson Creek. The victory gave the Goslings a record of three wins and five setbacks.

In other games since our last edition, Port Washington handed Watertown an eight to five defeat. The Goslings apparently weren't ready for this one and, minus both their hitting and fielding shows, were no match for the Pirates.

Next up was Salem Central, which was helped by nine Gosling errors to give them a 14-3 triumph.

In the next game Oconomowoc, also aided by Watertown errors, was victorious, the score being 7-3. Carl Krueger had two for three to lead Watertown at the plate.

Granville was overwhelmed by the Goslings 9-3. Carl Krueger held the opposition to five hits while Tom Justmann lead the batting with a home run and a double.

The first tournament game with Sun Prairie ended with the Goslings on the short end of a 9-8 score.
